

Online Monitor

Exceptional Value. Timely Insight.

- ▶ Stratcom's Online Monitor is an affordable online omnibus survey that gives you high quality quantitative research at a reasonable cost. Driven exclusively by public affairs issues — not consumer research — this survey of public opinion will provide you with important strategic information for campaigns, fundraising, and community engagement.

Canadians have something to say about your cause — Finding out is easier than you think.

We regularly conduct our Online Monitors – Nationally and in Ontario and British Columbia.
